CRUISES ON THE DANUBE

No visit to Budapest is complete without discovering its most famous landmarks. The Parliament, the Buda Castle, the Fisherman's Bastion, and of course the iconic bridges. These are must-sees and there's no better way to admire them than from the water.

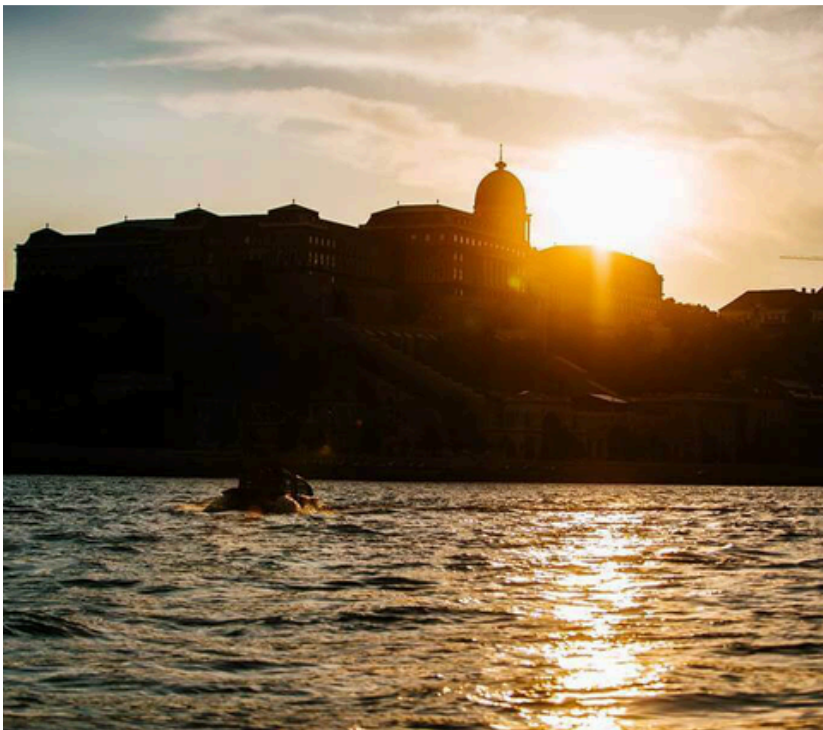

Exploring them during the day is impressive, but the true magic of Budapest reveals itself after sunset. When the city lights come on and the monuments begin to glow, everything feels more enchanting, more romantic, almost like stepping into a fairy tale.

Opportunities:

Legenda - Take a one-hour panoramic boat ride during the day or at night, with a welcome drink and an audio guide available in 30 languages. (€20 per adult, 1 hour)

Traditional Dinner & Cruise - Enjoy a romantic evening in an elegant setting with a four-course traditional Hungarian dinner, a glass of champagne, and live entertainment, including a folklore performance and gypsy music. (€90 per person, 2 hours)

Wine & Dine Cruise - Taste Hungarian wines aboard the Gróf Széchenyi, where live music enhances the atmosphere and a curated tasting of wines from five regions is paired with traditional food to taste. (44,500 HUF per person, 1,5 hours)

PRIVATE ROMANTIC SUNSET CRUISE

For those guests who wish to spend a romantic evening on the Danube, we are delighted to recommend this exclusive experience.

Enjoy an unforgettable sunset cruise aboard an elegant, Venetian-style boat, designed for couples seeking a truly intimate atmosphere. As the golden light reflects on the river, you can relax in complete privacy while admiring Budapest's most iconic riverside landmarks.

For any cruise arrangement, our Concierge Team will be delighted to assist you, in person or via concierge@queenscourt.hu.
